

ONLINE GRANT MANAGEMENT SEMINAR: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

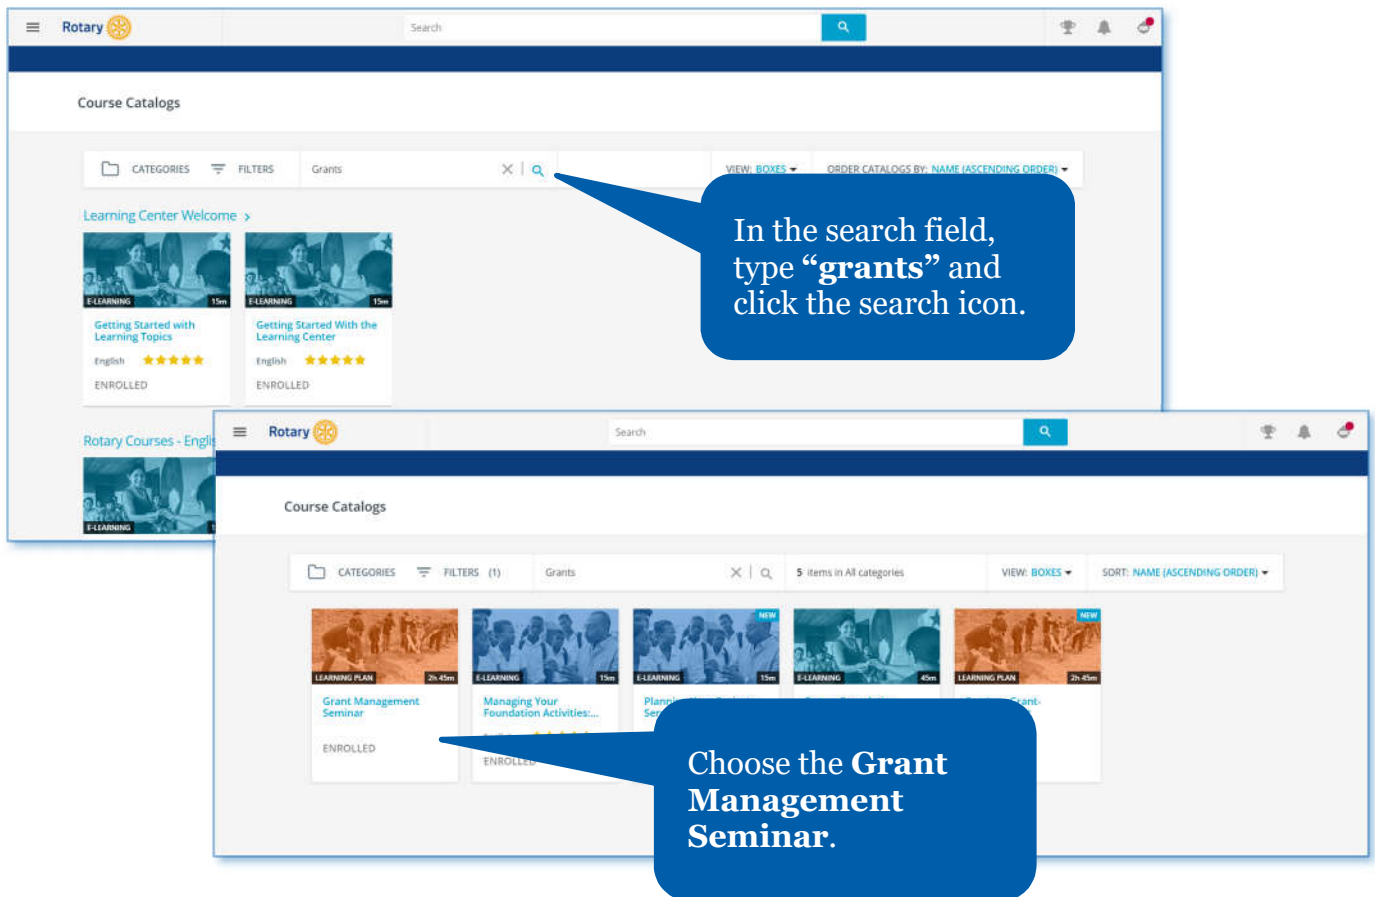

The Grant Management Seminar learning plan in Rotary’s Learning Center can help you understand more about grant planning and implementation, sustainability, financial management, and reporting. Districts can use the online courses to supplement or replace in-person training. Find more information about the seminar below.

How do I access the Grant Management Seminar?

Select Grant Management Seminar to access the seminar in the Learning Center or follow the instructions below.

The image shows two screenshots of the My Rotary website. The top screenshot shows the "My Rotary Member Dashboard" with a red "SIGN IN TO MY ROTARY" button. A blue callout bubble points to this button with the text "Sign in to My Rotary." The bottom screenshot shows the "Learning & Reference" menu expanded, with a blue callout bubble pointing to the "Learning Center" link and another pointing to the "Webinars" link. A third blue callout bubble points to the "Learning & Reference" menu item with the text "Hover over Learning & Reference." A fourth blue callout bubble points to the "Learning Center" link with the text "Then, choose the Learning Center."

Who can take the Grant Management Seminar?

Anyone with a My Rotary account.

How long is the Grant Management Seminar, and do I need to take all the courses at once?

There are nine courses, most of which are 15 minutes long. The entire seminar may take up to three hours to complete. You can stop and start the courses at your convenience.

Can I take the Grant Management Seminar on my mobile phone or other device?

Yes, you may take the courses on any tablet, mobile device, or computer.

Who do I contact with questions about the Grant Management Seminar?

Contact the Stewardship department at stewardshipdepartment@rotary.org.